SILVER JUBILEE OF EASTERN STAR AT COLISEUM

Big Entertainment During Convention of Grand Chapter in July Will Have as Guests, Visitors From All Parts of the Country. Speeches, Drills and Grand Ball on the Program. Many Tickets Sold.

The twenty-fifth anniversary and Silver Jubilee Celebration of the United Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star of Missouri and Jurisdiction, will be given at the Coliseum Thursday night July 22.

Arrangements have originally been made to have the big entertainment and ball at Dreamland. The big palace had been secured, tickets had been printed and placed on sale, and the committee had gone to other expense when the owners of the place countermanded the contract, necessitating the change of plans to the Coliseum. The program will consist of songs; drills; by the Knights Templars, the Consistory, Shriner, Royal Arch Masons, Master Masons, Daughters of Isis, Courts of Heroines and Order of Eastern Star.

A ball will be given in the music will be furnished by the Great Western band under the leadership of Prof. Wm. D. Flowers. Jas. W. Grant will be master of ceremonies. The jurisdiction of the order includes chapters in Portland, Oregon; Helena, Montana; Albuquerque, New Mexico; St. Paul and Duluth, Minn., and Omaha, Neb. These chapters, besides about 60 in Missouri, will send delegates to the Grand Chapter, which convenes here July 21, 22, 23. All the other jurisdictions in the United States have been invited. The admission to the big entertainment and ball, at the Coliseum on Thursday night, the 22nd, will be 50 cents; box seats, $1. The tickets are being distributed by Mrs. Gertrude Sutherland, Gen. Chairman, 4300 Cote Brilliante Ave.; Mrs. Maria A. Hodgeman, Sec., 2944 St. Louis Ave., and Mrs. Victoria Chap-Haley, Royal Grand Master at the headquarters, 209 N. Jefferson Ave. As many tickets have already been distributed and sold for the affair in Dreamland, these cannot be recalled and will be honored at the Coliseum.

The Keeton Recital

The new Metropolitan A. M. E. Z. Church was well filled with a representative audience of lovers of classic music Thursday, June 10, to witness the recital under the direction of W. Elmer Keeton. Undoubtedly, the moment of supreme beauty in the program was the concerto in D Minor, a trio, with Mr. Keeton at the organ and two of his advanced pupils, Miss Mahalia Curtis and Artie Mathews at separate pianos. This beautiful instrumental score won a great and deserved distinction. Miss Curtis also rendered a value; Mr. Mathews an elevation in A Flat and Keeton, the Fugal March, each being well received. Assisting in the recital were three of the city's most reputed artists.

Jas. Campbell rendered a beautiful interpretation of the Serenade for violin. J. Arthur Freeman, who still retains his marvelous tone tender-ness, filled the audience with ecstasy in a tenor solo, "Queen of the Earth." In "Le Printemps" Miss Mabel Story, with a purity of tone, achieved a triumph that won fervid applause. The closing number of the program, however, was the rendition of the "Miserere" from Il Trovatore, by Miss Story and Mr. Freeman. The emotional scenes of the work, the technical difficulties and speaks well for Mr. Keeton and his school of music. Of this institution St. Louis-ans can well feel proud.

Perhaps if you can get trace of Mrs. Tyler you can find Frances Crowder. Anxious to hear from them.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

The Wizard of Tuskegee

(From the Christian-Evangelist)

Booker Washington was born about 1858 or 1859. He does not know the year, nor the month, nor the day. He was a slave child, born of a slave woman, in a slave hut—no doors, no windows, no floor but the dirt, no bed but a pillow, or rags, no dining table, not even a cooking table, not a stove, nor regular meals; he ate when he could, a piece of meat here, in his fingers, a piece of bread there, a potato now, and a carrot then.

He does not know his father. He heard whispers in early childhood that his father was the owner of a neighboring plantation, and again he heard him chide his ill will. Said he, he was simply carried by the slavery under which he lived.

He has no words of reproach for his mother. Indeed, his mother was the guiding star of his early life, and it was because of the fact that he had learned to determine, and his mother, that he marched out of the slough of despond in which he was born.

Some of Dr. Washington's Sayings

Segregation? Says he, "You cannot build a fence high enough around a Negro community and you would have to build it twice as high to keep the white men out!" He reduces that to an absurdity.

Amalgamation? It is impossible, says he, for the races to amalgamate without the Negro absorbing all the rest of them; for, don't you know that one-tenth of Negro blood should be tested in the court and proved, physiologically? It shows that by the blacks would swallow up all the whites, and we would all be Negroes. Amalgamation is impossible.

ANNUAL SERMON

A large crowd of men was present at Wayman Chapel, Sunday afternoon attending the first annual sermon of the Municipal Janitors organization. An interesting program was rendered. Rev. J. W. Carter preached a very inspiring sermon. Mayor Henry W. Kiel, and City Clerk, Chas. Dawes, delivered short addresses.

Rev. Z. P. Harris, Master of Ceremonies. Rev. Geo. Clemmons, Pres. Henry Carter, Secretary.

Assassination. I have heard young men in the South say, "If I had white men, I would kill every black nigger in the world!" but I knew in my heart they didn't mean it. I knew perfectly well that they loved the Negro mamies on whose breasts their heads rested in infancy. I knew they would be perfectly lost without the Negroes round about them on the estates and in the town.

Anybody who has lived in the South knows the gentleness, the kindness, the sweetness of temper, the imperturbability, the calm and the content of this happy people, and would not be satisfied without their round about them.

Now, Booker Washington's solution of the Negro problem is this: Work, save, get, own. That will solve it all. He is right, absolutely right. That night he stood before the chicken booth, in Richmond, without a penny in his pocket to buy a "drumstick" and he absolutely said, "What do you want around here? Get away from here!"

The next morning, when he stood near the "drumstick" booth, in the quarter, and asked for a "drumstick" and a piece of bread, the man served him, and said, "Fine day today! Fine day today!"

"Now," says Booker Washington, "there is the difference between a black man with nothing, and a black man with quarters in his pocket. People, 'You save; get money; own a farm; have something to sell that the world wants; be able to do something that the world needs; have done, and you will be respected, you will be accepted, and place will be made for you.'"

How We Know That Christ Rose From the Dead

By REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D. D., Dean of Moody Bible Institute of Chicago

TEXT—Now if Christ be preaching that he rose from the dead, how may you come among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?—1 Cor. 15:12.

At this season of the year our thoughts are turned more than usual to the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

This is the keystone of the arch of Christianity and the basis of our own hope of life beyond the grave. Therefore it is of the first importance to us to be sure about it. We ought to have a firm foundation for our faith, for which reason we ask, and will try to answer, the question, How do we know that Jesus Christ arose from the dead?

Historical Monuments.

Antiquarians say that the strongest evidence of an event of early times is a historical monument erected to establish it. Take our Fourth of July. What an ever-recurring proof it is of the Declaration of Independence put forth by our political fathers as the Magna Charta of our nation! We trace the history of this day from decade to decade until we reach the point when it first came to be. What then originated it, or what explanation shall be given for its observance at that time? There must be some cause adequate for such an effect, and we find it in that action of the continental congress.

Just so we have the first day of the week which we keep as one of trust and worship. All the people do not keep this day, but many do, who are called Christians. They are found in all nations and among all tongues. Moreover they have kept this day for nearly 2,000 years, and yet there was a time when it began to be. What originated it, what explains its coming into being? There must be some cause adequate for such an effect, and it is found in the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead on that day. This proof is all the stronger when we recall that the first Christians were Jews, and that until that time they had always kept the seventh day of the week, and not the first. It must have been a revolutionary event indeed to produce a change like this.

The Testimony of Eye-Witnesses.

But going further back, what ground had our Christian fathers for believing that Jesus Christ arose from the dead on that day? To mention only a single fact, they had the testimony of 514 eye-witnesses, mentioned by Paul in I Corinthians 15:6. We know that these might be mistaken, or two or three might be mistaken, but 514 hardly! And not when you remember that 800 of them saw him "at one season." He has risen from the dead, and furthermore the post-resurrection appearances of Jesus Christ were many, for he remained upon the earth for six weeks. And not only that, they many, but very intimate, if we may so express it. He walked and talked with his disciples, and he ate and drank with them. And he afforded them the evidence not only of the senses of sight and sound, but of touch, too. Thomas was directed to thrust his hand into the wound in the side of Jesus, and told to "be not faithless, but believing." The man who rejects such testimony is incapable of accepting any testimony to anything or anybody.

Personal Experience.

And yet the man who truly believes on the Lord Jesus Christ, has evidence of more intimate and satisfactory kind than either of those named. He has the witness in himself, for he himself is risen from the dead, not yet physically, but in a spiritual sense. He has risen from the death of sin into the life of righteousness. He knows this to be a fact, and it is gratifying to his experiences that the physical resurrection to follow is altogether removed from the region of uncertainty or doubt.

But how did this resurrection take place in his case? Simply by believing the testimony of God concerning the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This is a great mystery, but the moment a man believes what God has said about his son who died for our sins and rose again for our justification, that moment he is born again, he is a new man, and his world, with a new hope in his heart. You do not need to offer him further proof that Jesus Christ rose from the dead, he carries with him all the proof he requires in his own soul.

Once I was blind, but now I can see. The light of the world is Jesus.

No power can effect this change in a man but God; and if God effects it in a man believe, that is all the testimony the man needs. He has died and rose again. Why not try it for yourself? It costs nothing but the surrender of your will to God, but it is worth more than everything else you have in this world.

LESSON FOR JUNE 13

BLESSEDNESS OF FORGIVENESS.

LESSON TEXT—Psalm 51. GOLDEN TEXT—Hebrews 10:17. "Transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered—Psalm 51."

This psalm is believed to have grown out of David's experience with Nathan (see Rom. 1:4-6). It is the second of the seven so-called "penitential psalms" (6, 32, 38, 51, 103, 142). While it is said, it is at the same time one of the most joyful of all psalms. It is the record of bitter sorrow and also of heartfelt praise, and is as vital in its message today as the day it was given to the world.

I. The State or Condition of Happiness. (1) What is happiness? v. 1, 2. The blessed or happy man is one who is forgiven. God only can forgive, sin and he pleads before us his agency, viz., the shed blood. David as king enjoyed the pleasures of life, but he also knew the reality of sin and its covering. The joy of forgiveness is offered to all who accept God's gift of justification (Acts 10:43). The psalmist seems to multiply words, "Transgression" means rebellion; "sin" to miss the mark (Rom. 3:23); "iniquity," "iniquity," when men try to cover sin are exactly told the result (Gen. 3:12); but God literally takes away when he forgives and "covers" sin (John 1:29; Ps. 103:12; 85:3). Neither sin nor devil can uncover what he has covered. (2) Who is unhappy? v. 3, 4. Contrasted with the state or condition of happiness presented to the forgiven sinner is the state of those who are unforgiven. David kept silence without lips silent, bones "roaring." During the days of David's silence following his sin and his guilt of increased acts of sin and cruelty (2 Sam. 12:31). The origin of the word "Sabbath" is not known, it probably indicated a musical inflection and in the psalm most appropriately and dramatically appears. (3) How may we be happy? v. 5, 6. All sin is uncovered to God. His all-seeing eye can penetrate man's futile endeavors to hide his transgressions. The first step to forgiveness and to happiness is confession of a musical inflection and in the psalm most appropriately and dramatically appears. (3) How may we be happy? v. 5, 6. All sin is uncovered to God. His all-seeing eye can penetrate man's futile endeavors to hide his transgressions. The first step to forgiveness and to happiness is confession of a musical inflection and in the psalm most appropriately and dramatically appears. (3) How may we be happy? v. 5, 6. IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our darling daughter, Julia Marshall Erickson, who departed this life June 7, 1910. Five sad years have passed away, and times bring no relief.

We miss your coming footsteps, we miss you everywhere; The home is not what it used to be, Since our dear child is not there.

Sadly missed by Mrs. L. M. McCee (mother), father, husband and uncle.

Some Hints To Moving Picture Patrons

As Told by W. H. King, Proprietor Of The Garden Airdome, 2120 Market Street

First, patronize those places that give you race employment. When you don't feel like going to Forest Park Highlands, come to the Garden Airdome, where you are always welcome. (Blood is thicker than water.)

How many white oedons on Market St. employ colored help?—All of our employees are colored.

We spent Eight Hundred Dollars in improvements, and every dollar was paid to colored workmen. How many white oedons on Market St. have done as much for the race?

If you think you are doing right by spending all of your nickles in white oedons let your daughter apply for a position as Cashier at one of them; and please let us know if we are giving our patrons the best moving pictures that money can buy, even though we are forced to send her to Chicago to get 'em, because the white oedon proprietors on Market St. have bought up all of the local service in an effort to keep us from doing business among our own people.

For any further information along this line see Mr. King, 2120 Market St., at the Garden Airdome.—Adv.

FOR RENT: Four rooms, alcove, gas bath, modern conveniences. Will decorate to suit. Also neatly furnished front room downstairs. 4321 Labadie. 6-11-15.

FOR RENT: Nice, clean, three-room flat to respectable colored people. 1441-3 Francis. $11 per month. Also 1449, corner 2d, front and back porch, $12.00. 383-6 (6-11-15).

JOINT PICNIC A joint picnic of the Delany and Wheatley Schools will be at the ground 1 and 2, Carondelet Park, Tuesday, June 15, to which the patrons and friends of the schools are invited.

Suits pressed while you wait. Olive 4473. 105 S. 20th St.

3 IN ONE OILS

CLEANS, POLISHES PREVENTS RUST

3-In-One is a light, pure oil compound that never gums. 3-In-One lubricates perfectly sewing machines, typewriters, bicycles, clocks, guns, lawnmowers—everything that ever needs oiling in your home or office. No grease. No acid. A little 3-In-One on a soft cloth cleans and polishes perfectly all varnished furniture and woodwork. Sprinkled on a part of the house it makes an almost instant shining floor. 3-In-One absolutely prevents rust on barrels, auto fixtures, ball room floors, and the most difficult to clean, indoors or out, in any climate. It sinks into the unseen metal parts and forms a protecting "overcoat" which keeps the parts from rusting. Write today for general information.
